Re: BRAC Group, Inc., et al., Plaintiff-Appellees v. Ibrahiem Jaeban, Defendant-Appellant, Civil Action No. 05-259-KAJ

Dear Judge Jordan:

I am writing on behalf of the parties to the above-referenced appeal (the "Appeal") from the Bankruptcy Court.

Enclosed is a copy of the Joint Motion to Expedite Appeal (the "Joint Motion") that was filed by the parties to the Appeal today. As is set forth more fully in the Joint Motion, the parties submit that expedited consideration of the Appeal is in the interests of comity and justice.

As relief, the parties jointly request that the Court approve the briefing schedule set forth in the attached Order, which provides for briefing to be completed by June 27, 2005. Although the parties anticipate completing mediation in early June, they believe that briefing should not await the conclusion of the mediation. The parties also respectfully request an early date after the completion of briefing for oral argument, but due to the schedules of counsel who will be arguing the appeal, request that such argument be after July 11, 2005.

The parties are available at the Court's convenience to present the Joint Motion and answer any questions Your Honor may have with respect thereto. As such, the parties respectfully request the Court's consideration of their Joint Motion at its earliest convenience.

Respectfully Submitted,

Edmon L. Morton
